| 1 | Nov | Common Dance | Informed by notions of shared experience, Common Dance is a large-scale work by one of Britain's leading choreographers, Rosemary Lee. This bold production involves 50 professional and non-professional dancers aged 8 to 80, a choir of 70 young people from Finchley Children's Music Group and a specially commissioned score by Terry Mann. Created specifically for Greenwich's historic and striking Borough Hall, the space will be used as a symbolic 'common ground', bringing together performers from across the generations. Walking the margin between the traditional and the contemporary, Common Dance is both poignant and telling. | 15.00 & 18.30 | £15.00 £12.00 conc | Greenwich Dance Agency The Borough Hall Royal Hill Greenwich London SE10 8RE T: 020 8293 9741 www.greenwichdance.org.uk | Greenwich | All |

| 10 | Nov | In Celebration! L'Eventail s'en va t'en Guerre | Did you know that J. R. R. Tolkien joined the Lancashire Fusiliers and that he had seen active service in World War 1? A presentation will explain the many facets of the military and how they relate to fans in the exhibition of the moment – "Fans: War & Peace" – at The Fan Museum and subsequent exhibits at the Heritage Centre & Firepower in Woolwich. Slides and anecdotes connected with some of the fans will illustrate this fascinating subject. Come and hear how Louis XIV of France insisted that all the court accompany him on campaign, including the Queen, his very pregnant "Maitresse-en-Titre" and his new up-and-coming mistress! From the 17th to the 20th century, military fans tell their own story, and where better can it be told than in the elegant Orangery of the Fan Museum? | Doors: 18.00 | £10.00 (to include VIP museum entry & light refreshments) | The Fan Museum 12 Crooms Hill Greenwich London SE10 8ER T: 020 8305 1441 www.fan-museum.org | Greenwich | All |

| 18 | Nov | Van Huynh Company: Sudden Change of Event World Première | Sudden Change of Event is an exploration on the fragility of momentary events. Each moment of our existence can have infinite outcomes; sudden changes may occur any time and drive the individual to adapt. The choreography draws its main focus on the different dancers and their behaviours, alternately interacting or simply coexisting without conflict. The dancers and their individual languages, lives and choices are brought together into the same space. Sometimes, it appears that their paths have been united explicitly, when suddenly a change breaks the harmony of the moment and put an end to the encounter. | 19.30 | £12.00 £8.00 conc | Laban Theatre Creekside Greenwich London SE10 3DZ Box Office: 020 8469 9500 www.laban.org | Greenwich | All |

| 26 to 28 | Nov | The Canterville Ghost | When a brash American family stay at the gothic English stately home, Canterville Chase, they fail to be the least big frightened by Sir Simon, the resident ghost. Sir Simon, condemned by a curse to haunt the house, tries every scary and spooky trick in the book. However, his antics provide only great amusement for them as they drive him into hiding. The young Virginia, appalled by her family's grotesque behaviour, searches out the depressed Ghost and befriends him. As their affection for one another deepens, Virginia and the Ghost realise that she is the solution to an ancient rhyme that will help rid him of his curse. Virginia, persuading her family to help, embarks on an important and difficult mission to set Sir Simon free. A delightful musical, with great humour, rousing feel good songs and a perfectly formed piece of genuine family entertainment. | To 8 Nov | Tue to Sun | World Premiere: The Gift | The Gift is a hauntingly lyrical one-act drama set around the Irish borderlands, where lonely, widowed farmer Ned works his land, not so much for wealth as to wash away the days. When Belfast stranger Callum inherits a nearby farm, Ned looks forward to making friends with his new neighbour, only to find the other man is a reticent loner. Recently out of prison, Callum carries a burden of guilt: the terrorist act he committed for a cause in which he no longer believes. But as the drama unfolds, we discover he is not alone in harbouring a dark secret, for Ned has one of his own. | Tue-Sat: 20.00 Sun: 16.00 | £12.00 £10.00 conc | Greenwich Playhouse Greenwich Station Forecourt 189 Greenwich High Road Greenwich London SE10 8JA T: Box office 020 8858 9256 E: boxoffice@galleontheatre.co.uk www.galleontheatre.co.uk | Greenwich | All |

| To 3 Jan 2010 | Daily | North-West Passage: An Arctic Obsession | The fabled North-West Passage, the sea route linking the North Atlantic with the north Pacific Ocean, was sought by explorers for centuries as a lucrative short-cut for trade between Europe and the East. In 1845 Sir John Franklin set out on a scientific expedition of unprecedented scale, in vessels equipped with the latest technological innovations. The voyage was to become one of the greatest disasters of Arctic exploration. Both ships and their entire crews vanished, and it was eventually discovered that all 129 men died of starvation, exposure and sickness. The exhibition looks at some of the extraordinary stories, feats of endurance and tragedies that surround famous attempts by Sir John Ross, Sir James Clarke Ross, Sir William Parry and Sir John Franklin. Key artefacts in the exhibition, including letters and relics recovered from Franklin's doomed voyage of 1845, provide a glimpse into the survival strategies used by 19th-century explorers to combat the Arctic's harsh climate. | 10.00-17.00 | Free | National Maritime Museum Park Row Greenwich London SE10 9NF T: 020 8858 4422 www.nmm.ac.uk | Cutty Sark DLR | All |

| Ongoing | Sun - Wed | Eitham Palace | Eitham Palace is a fascinating combination of a luxurious Art Deco home and an important medieval royal palace. Initially a moated manor house bought by Edward II in 1305, additions such as the impressive hammer beam-roofed Great Hall in the 1470s created one of England's largest palaces for a succession of royals. Most famously, Henry VIII grew up here. In 1933 the palace was bought by Stephen and Virginia Courtauld, who restored the Great Hall and built their adjoining Art Deco home. | 11.00-16.00 Mon, Tue, Wed & Sun until 20 March then 10.00-17.00 Mon, Tue, Wed & Sun. | House and Gardens: Adult £8.00 Conc £6.50 Child £4.00 Family £20.00 Gardens only: Adult £5.00 Conc £4.00 Child £2.50 | Eitham Palace Court Yard Eitham London SE9 5QE T: 020 8294 2548 www.english-heritage.org.uk | Eitham | All |
