

An impressive choice of historic venues, set in royal parkland on the banks of the River Thames, combined with great hospitality, make Maritime Greenwich the perfect choice for your next event.

Devonport House

Straight from boardroom to banqueting in this 4 star, period hotel.

Devonport House is a beautiful period hotel situated in the heart of Greenwich. It offers a wealth of elegant spaces to accommodate meetings, conferences, private dinners and weddings for up to 120 with catering. It has 94 en suite bedrooms and private parking.

The Fan Museum

An original venue that displays unique works of art on a classical canvas.

The award-winning Fan Museum, situated in the heart of Greenwich, is the perfect setting for intimate dinners, cosy lunches and elegant receptions. This stylish and tranquil venue invites you to enjoy their beautiful Orangery and Japanese-style garden.

National Maritime Museum

Four unique locations. One fabulous setting.

The Museum's Upper Deck offers modern dining on a grand scale, while the Queen's House has more classical splendour. At the Royal Observatory guests can visit the home of time and receive star treatment at the Peter Harrison Planetarium.

Novotel London Greenwich

A stylish and contemporary hotel with an unbeatable location.

The Novotel London Greenwich is a stylish and contemporary 4 star hotel situated right next to the mainline and DLR stations in Greenwich. The hotel has five flexible conference and banqueting rooms, 151 en suite bedrooms and leisure facilities.

Old Royal Naval College

A truly majestic setting on the banks of the River Thames.

Offering a choice of four magnificent venues. The Painted Hall is one of the finest banqueting halls in Europe; the Queen Mary Undercroft, refurbished to a contemporary style; the King William Restaurant and Admiral's House, an intimate series of rooms with river views.

University of Greenwich

A historic campus on the banks of the River Thames.

The University occupies three splendid buildings within Sir Christopher Wren's masterpiece; the Old Royal Naval College. It offers extensive conference facilities at exceptional prices including private dining rooms, an impressive collection of lecture theatres and naturally lit syndicate spaces.
